The Ministries

welcomes you to worship with us
September 11, 2005

You are welcome to worship God, the Father Almighty, with us. Our mission at The Be is quite simple: we are here to help you be what God intended you to be, not what our ministry would like to see you be, not what our pastor would like to see you be, but what God has laid on your heart to be. It's as simple as that. ;)

"You were made to be."

What are you doing to lay up treasures in Heaven to be used to worship God? There are many ways which you can show the love of Christ. You will discover other ways the more involved you become in this congregation's outreaches.. "For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." (Matthew 5:22 Revised Standard Version)

Community lunch

The next community lunch organized by the women's ministry will be on September 17. Preparation starts at 10:15 a. m., and the lunch is served at noon. Kay Cary coordinates the help for this, so communicate with her to find out what she needs from you.

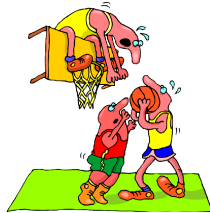

Banquet for the softball team

Erin Taylor has organized a banquet for the softball team. It will be held at Lincoln Park after the worship service on September 18. Find out from Erin what you should bring.

Basketball team formation

John Handley is leading the formation of a church basketball team. Anyone who wants to play on the church team should make that desire known to John.

Church directory

Karin Davidson is assembling a church directory, which will aid us in communicating with one another. Please, give her your information.

Clean up Crew

Get your assignment from Evan Campbell, your crew leader. Also, please check with Evan to be sure all work is done before you quit for the day.

We have enough volunteers for two cleanup crews, but would like to have at least one more crew for the rotation. If you have not volunteered already and would like to do so, please contact Glenn Montis.

All worship team members are responsible for packing up the music equipment.

This week's cleanup crew:	Evan Campbell – Crew leader

Web site

Sermons from Be Church are available for download from the Be Church web site [<http://www.be-church.com>]. The weekly church bulletins is also available on the web site, usually by Sunday morning.

Your offering

By the door, there is a box into which you can place your offering as the Holy Spirit moves you. Remember that God gave you a gift of energy and time, too. There is always labor to do.

“The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work.”

(2 Corinthians 9:6-8, Revised Standard Version)

Baptism

A baptism service will be scheduled soon. Anyone interested in being baptized should contact Glenn Montis.

In the Mission field

Emily Cary left for her year-long street ministry on Friday morning. Remember to pray for her and those to whom she is showing the love of Christ.

Request for help

Glenn Montis diligently transcribes sermons and posts them on the church web site, which he helps maintain. I (Grant Powell) prepare the weekly bulletin, which you are reading. Please help us by scrutinizing the web site and bulletin each week for those activities in which you participate. Bring errors of name spelling, times, places or anything else to the attention of any one of us so that we can provide accurate information to the congregation. (We share our information.)

Minimal information should include who, what, when, and where. Why and how, if appropriate, should be included in your information, too.

Glenn's contact information is listed under the "Baptism" heading above, and mine is on the bottom of the back page.
